

The management of the Columbia takes pleasure in announcing the engagement for the week of March 14, of Madame Janaschek and a company of unusual strength in the new play, "What Dreams May Come."

The fact that Madame Janaschek is the greatest living actress of her type upon the stage today, and that the highest and most noble manifestation of the players genius, renders her appearance of unusual interest to all lovers of great acting.

"What Dreams May Come" affords Madame Janaschek an opportunity to appear in a singular and striking character, that of the Countess Demitri, a Russian woman who meets her son in London under circumstances which afford many powerful situations. The play is an absolute novelty, and while Madame Janaschek has not for years had a role of greater strength, yet the play moves forward in an atmosphere of youth and sentiment and quiet comedy. The end is happy. The play is the work of Paul Kester who is himself no stranger to Washington, having lived four years at Gunston on the Potomac just below the city.

The company which will appear with Madame Janaschek, includes players of such sterling worth as Edmund Collier, Joseph Whiting and Myron Alice.

Maude Banks who has recently done such wonderful work in the Independent Theatre in New York is also in the cast. In John Blair, to whom the part of Roger Hazleton is entrusted, Mme. Janaschek's management believe that they have secured the most able and gifted of all the younger leading men. He has but recently quitted Daniel Frohman's forces and next season plays alternate leads with Julia Marlowe. Other members of the company are Misses Washburn, Miss de Wolf, Mr. Holland, Mr. Layman and Mr. Hepworth. Special scenery will be used.

Mr. W. H. H. Heart has been appointed a copyist by Recorder of Deeds Chatham. Mr. Heart is Professor on Criminal Law, and Domestic Relations in the Howard University Law School.

Editor W. Calvin Chase will speak at Ebenezer church, tomorrow afternoon. Subject: "Man is Responsible for the Wrongs of Woman."

W. M. DRURY.

Among the best known citizens in the Northwest is Mr. W. M. Drury, corner of 20th and M streets. One of the few men who has no prejudices. Mr. Drury is an enterprising citizen and a man who is liked by all who patronize his place of business. He is a wide awake business man.

At a meeting of the Advisory Board of the Bethel Literary and Historical Association, on Tuesday evening last, it was voted to request the several colored churches of the District of Columbia to take a collection for the relief of the bereaved wife and children of Frazier Baker the murdered postmaster at Lake City, S. C., on Sunday March 20, 1898, and to place the amount obtained in the hands of Mr. Leonard C. Bailey, who will see that it reaches the sufferers. Representatives of the Bethel Literary will present the matter to the ministers at their meeting Monday.

The "BEE HIVE,"

1920 Pennsylvania Av.

EDWARD KOHNER, Proprietor.

The famous Bros. Byrne will produce their successful spectacular production, the New "8 Bells," at the Grand Opera House, beginning Monday March 14, with usual Matinees. The scenic effects invented by the talented John F. Byrne are very clever and startling.

In the new "Eight Bells" which will be the attraction at the Grand next week, the Bros. Byrne play the parts of students and servants and have all manner of escapades, each succeeding the other in rapid order, and each one more comical than the one preceding.

Mr. John F. Byrne is the inventor and patentee of all of the stage mechanism used in the presentation of this amusing comedy. It is the most novel and intricate used by any road company. The Bros. Byrne stand at the head of their profession in this peculiar line of work and bring a strong company of specialty people with them. Some of the scenes are very notably funny, particularly that with the wild white horse and trick carriage, and the stateroom frolics on board an ocean steamer. The fun is fast and furious, but withal clean and whole some.

Do you want a whiskey that is "the finest" grade and full "proof?" If you do, call at the Bordeaux Wine Co. corner of 14th and T streets, and try their "Special." There are a very few brands sold in Washington that excel it. Mr. Demonet the manager is a gentleman of the "old school," and will tender you such polite attention that you will surely call again.
